Cathcart is a small town in the Eastern Cape province. It is situated on the N6 which ensures access to Queenstown to the north and East London to the south-east.

The town sits in the foothills of the Amathole mountain range, offering tourists a mild climate, although some peaks are covered with snow in winter.

Activities include fishing, mountain biking, gliding and hiking along a number of trails which begin at the old post office. The scenery in the area is beautiful.

The region has good pasture for animal grazing and rich soils for crop farming. These factors and the climate enable a variety of crops to be grown, such as pineapples, chicory, tomatoes and tea. Sheep farming is also an important contributor to the economy of the area.

Cathcart is 'n klein dorp in die Oos-Kaapprovinsie. Geleë op die N6 verseker dit toegang na Queenstown na die noorde en Oos-Londen na die suidooste.

Die dorp is genestel in die voetheuwels van die Amatholebergreeks en bied toeriste 'n gematigde klimaat, alhoewel sommige pieke gedurende die winter met sneeu bedek is.

Aktiwiteite sluit in visvang, bergfiets en -hangsweef en 'n aantal staproetes wat by die historiese poskantoor begin. Die landskap in die gebied is mooi.

Die streek het goeie weiding vir veevoer en vrugbare grond vir gewasverbouing. Hierdie faktore en die klimaat maak dit moontlik vir 'n verskeidenheid gewasse soos pynappels, sigorei, tamaties en tee. Skaapboerdery is ook 'n belangrike bydraer tot die ekonomie van die gebied.
